PACIFIC COAST MATTERS.

SAN DIEGO, December 31.—Greenbacks in San Francisco yesterday were 93½@94½; gold in New York 107.

SAN DIEGO, January 2.—Among the killed at the recent disaster near Ashabula, Ohio, are Mrs. Truworthy and Mrs. Coffin, her daughter, who were on route home after a visit of a year to their former home in Maine. Their present residence is near Oakland, on the San Pablo road.

Paymaster Roche, and son sailed from San Francisco, en route to Tucson, January 1.

SAN DIEGO, January 3.—Jas. A. Evans, in the interest of the Texas Pacific arrived from Los Angeles on Sunday; will probably be here some time. Captain C. R. Egan, United States Army, late purchasing agent of commissary supplies at San Francisco, has been ordered to Prescott as chief commissary of subsistence.

SAN DIEGO, January 4.—General Superintendent Valentine, of Wells, Fargo & Co's Banking House has issued his annual statement of precious metals produced west of the Mississippi during past year. It shows an aggregate yield of $90,875,173, the largest ever known in one year and an increase of nearly ten millions over 1875. The increase is notably in Arizona, Nevada, Colorado and California. Nevada produces nearly five-ninths of the whole amount of gold and silver in the United States. Arizona produced $103,528 in gold dust and bullion, 336,594 in silver bullion, and $671,900 in ores and base bullion; total $1,111,992. [In addition to this there is a very large amount carried out of the Territory by private hands and of which no account can possibly be obtained. Ed. CITIZEN.]

Woodward, ex-confidential clerk of Tweed has been discharged from custody on his own recognizance. He turned over some important documents to be used against Tweed, and also transferred to city of New York property amounting to one hundred and five thousand dollars.

It is now ascertained beyond doubt that the appointment of Cronin as an elector from Oregon, originated in New York. Cronin testified to-day that he demanded and was paid three thousand dollars for traveling expenses before leaving Oregon.

CARSON, NEVADA, January 2.—Legislature organized to-day, with H. R. Mighels for Speaker of the Assembly.

EASTERN STATES.

CHICAGO, December 27.—The Journal's Washington special says, "The Treasury department has advised from London that Confederate bonds sold there between November 9 and 11, at from 4½ to 5 cents on the dollar. It is understood that there are no official quotations of these bonds in London at present. Secretary Morrill has a telegram from London saying an impression prevails there now that Hayes has been legally elected and that he will be inaugurated; in consequence of this belief government bonds are advancing."

ASHABULA, OHIO, January 2.—The lowest estimate puts the number of deaths by late railway disaster at 100; some think the number is twice as great. Very few bodies have been recovered yet.

NEW ORLEANS, January 3.—The House committee has reported Orton to the House as in contempt for refusing to answer second subpoena.

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 3.—Gov. Drew, Democrat, was inaugurated to-day.

ASHABULA, O., December 30.—At 5 o'clock last evening the Pacific Express train on the Lake Shore road went through the bridge on Ashabula Creek; the train included six palace and dining-room with five other cars and two engines. Only the forward engine remained on the track. There was a sheer fall of 75 feet; the lamps and stoves set fire to the cars which were soon ablaze; the creek was filled with ice and the weather was fearfully cold. Those passengers not killed outright were nearly all burned or frozen to death. There were 165 persons on the train and less than sixty were saved. The lost are for the most part so frightfully disfigured, many being almost utterly consumed by fire, that it is an impossibility to identify them. There is no prospect of ascertaining the names of the dead.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, December 30. The 300 mile walking match between O'Leary and Howse resulted in the defeat of the American champion, who gave out after walking 209 miles. Howse walked 341 miles.

TUCSON, January 5, 1877. Dr. J. H. PIENSON, Wickenburg.—I will give One Thousand Dollars for the capture, dead or alive, of any one or all the robbers. Let no effort be spared to capture them. These fiends must be put down. I hope every good citizen will unite and assist in sweeping them from the face of the earth.

A. P. K. SAFFORD, Governor.

WICKENBURG, January 5, 1877. Gov. A. P. K. SAFFORD.—From stage agent, Prescott. Just got news from Prescott that the stage robbers were captured and in jail. Everything taken was recovered.

GUILD, Operator.

A New County.

SPRINGVILLE, December 26, 1876. EDITOR CITIZEN: You will probably see, or hear spoken of, a petition signed by the citizens generally of the eastern part of Yavapai county, sent to the Legislature, praying that honorable body to grant us a new county formed of the eastern portion of Yavapai. We would respectfully ask you to assist us. We are a long distance from the seat of the county in which we are at present, some 225 miles, and for at least one-fourth of the year it is impossible to reach the county seat on account of the heavy snows in the mountains. We are able to support a county government and we think it would be greatly to our advantage to have a new county struck off, and will ever thank you for your influence in our behalf.

W. R. MILLIGAN, and others.

Gov. A. P. K. SAFFORD delivered his Fourth Biennial Message on Wednesday to the Legislature in joint convention. Many citizens were present, and so far as we have heard expressions regarding the delivery and merits of the document, they are unreservedly commendatory, and can but gratify the Governor. The message is regarded as comprehensive, practical and creditable to the Territory as well as Governor Safford. The document and other matter precludes any special comment, other than giving the popular and general commendation of it.

On December 27, the Speaker of the House issued subpoena against Orton to appear forthwith before the Morris committee at New Orleans with the required telegrams.

The State authorities of Sonora recognize Iglesias as President of the Republic, ad interim. It is now Diaz vs. Iglesias.
